FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BOYD BRADSHAW ACCEPTS NEW POSITION

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University admissions counselor Boyd Bradshaw has left Eastern to accept a new position as program coordinator in the Office of Admissions at Saint Louis University (Missouri).

He is serving as coordinator of recruitment programs in SLU's College of Nursing and is conducting recruiting for the admissions office in secondary schools in Georgia, Illinois, Missouri and the East Coast.

Saint Louis University is one of only 28 Jesuit colleges and universities in the entire nation and is the oldest institution of higher learning west of the Mississippi River.

Bradshaw, formerly of Princeville, earned a bachelor's degree in business/administrative management in 1993 and a master's degree in guidance and counseling in 1995, both from Eastern. He was an admissions counselor at Eastern for four years and assistant coordinator of the summer orientation program, EIU Debut, for one year.

His wife, Heather, also an Eastern graduate, is working as a speech pathologist at Southcoast Rehabilitation Center in Maryland Heights, Mo.

The couple's new address is 12036 Charter House Lane, St. Louis, Mo., 63146.
